

Tentative Schedule

June 5th, 2012

Day 1 - Seminar

Morning

Presentation by Brian McKenna of Winning Edge Training:
-you can view his website at www.winningedgetraining.com

Afternoon

Presentation by Dr. Steve Ganton - Fairfield Animal Hospital
-this presentation will involve hands on work with canine cadavers including dealing with gastric torsion, bloating, splints, intubation, applying tourniquet, administering meds.

Familiarization with RCMP helicopters and night/heat vision for following day's scenarios.

June 6th-7th ,2012

Day 2 & 3 - Workshop

General Purpose Dogs

Scenarios involving high risk bush tracking, border integrity scenarios, risk house and outbuilding searches. Bring your units night/heat if available. There will be units on site. high vision

Also bring muzzle for helicopter scenarios.

Specialty Dogs

Challenging and practical search sites that will push your canine partners. Will involve both rural and city sites.

**Bring your units cheque books as there will be vendors attending the seminar with their products and/or a representative to speak with**